6th International Rotary Children's Musical Competition
123610, Moscow, Krasnopresnenskaya Nab., 12
Professor Josef Marous

The Ministry for Culture and Mass Communications of the Russian Federation warmly greets the organizers and participants with the opening of the Sixth International Rotary Children's Musical Competition, this wonderful celebration preserving and carrying spirituality.

The competition has the fine and noble goals of revealing the inner world of young individuals, personalities of active creative mood, beautiful soul and open heart.

It is gratifying that this large scale event assures the preservation and restoration of cultural continuity, develop and support all manifestations of individuality. I am confident that the today,s event which is oriented to create goodwill will help the young generation to make significant contributions to society.

I wish you interesting meetings and discoveries and every success!
